

Plessey Road Blyth

Perfect for first time buyers and large enough for a growing family, this welcoming and generously sized three bedroom terrace house sits in a great location not far from the ever popular Ridley Park. Close the main town centre with good transport links and within good proximity to Blyth Harbour and the lovely sandy beaches nearby, this really is a super home with a great feel. It features a large lounge/dining area and three really good sized bedrooms, two being double and a roomy single bedroom. The property briefly comprises: Entrance hallway with stairs to first floor, large L shaped walk in cupboard, lounge/dining room, kitchen and door to rear yard. The first floor features two large double bedrooms and a further spacious single room, and benefits from a modern four piece bathroom with the added luxury of an attractive bath and separate shower cubicle finished to a high standard. The rear of the property offers low maintenance space which can house up to three cars and is accessed via a roller shutter entrance and an additional gateway. This home is ready to move into and has been well maintained by the current owners – call our Blyth branch on 01670 352900 or blyth@rmsestateagents.co.uk today to book your viewing as we expect demand to be high on this super home!

“It is our understanding that the Property is not registered at the Land Registry which is the case with a significant proportion of land across England and Wales. Your Conveyancer will take the necessary steps and advise you accordingly.”
