The Village Acklington NE65 9BL

Standing within manicured and mature gardens with an array of seating areas, this truly is a garden to enjoy the outdoors during the warmer months of the year and throughout the seasons.

The accommodation briefly comprises, all to the ground floor, entrance porch, entrance hall, a spacious lounge with wood burning stove, outstanding dining kitchen and family area, the kitchen being well appointed with an extensive range of units and integral appliances. There are three double bedrooms, the main bedroom having an en-suite shower room and there is a family bathroom. Outside the driveway provides off road parking and accesses the double garage with light and power and pathways lead around the property to the attractive gardens. With immaculately tended lawns and mature flowerbeds, there is an elevated garden to the side with a children's playhouse and hammocks between the mature trees to relax and enjoy the peace and tranquility. The garden extends to a raised decking area with table and chairs affording superb panoramic views across to the countryside. To the rear of the property, the patio is a lovely outdoor space to sit and enjoy the sunshine and the pergola provides the perfect shade whilst the summerhouse gives the option of undercover seating.

Acklington is in high demand with many buyers moving into the area who are looking for a village with a huge community spirit. There are many events held at the local village hall and the local pub, which serves food, has become a great place to meet up with friends and family. The local train station has a limited service in the mornings and late afternoon and the local bus service visits Morpeth with a connection to Newcastle. There are further stations in Alnmouth and Morpeth with trains to Edinburgh, Newcastle and beyond and the A1 with its links to the north and south of the County with motorway connections nationwide is close to hand. The traditional harbour town of Amble with many shopping and leisure amenities along with excellent restaurants and cafes is close to hand. The characterful Amble Harbour Village with retail pods, Little Shore Beach and Pier where there are regular sightings of dolphins and harbour boat trips visiting Coquet Island with its bird species inhabitants of puffins and roseate terns and many grey seals provides a lovely day out. The stunning wide sandy beach of Druridge Country Park with a watersports lake and countryside walk is just a short drive along the coastal road.

This impressive bungalow will be an ideal purchase for anyone looking for a property with wonderful countryside scenery yet within easy reach of many shopping and leisure amenities of the surrounding towns.
