John's Cabin

Fram Park, Longframlington

A one bedroom, log cabin situated in Fram Park on the outskirts of Longframlington Village in the Northumberland Countryside. Fram Park is home to a small selection of log cabins in a quiet rural setting and an ideal location to own a holiday cabin for your own use or an excellent investment opportunity as a holiday let. The cabin itself comprises of open plan kitchen/dining area/lounge, double bedroom and bathroom/W.C.

On site there is a coin-operated laundrette, ironing facilities, a covered barbeque and children's play area. In addition, the cabins are only a fifteen-minute walk or a three minute drive to the local amenities Longframlington offers including a handful of shops (award winning corner shop and butcher), two pubs serving food, two churches, a large village green with play area and hard court 5-a-side pitch/tennis court and a large enclosed dog walking area.

Open Plan Lounge, Kitchen, Diner: 20'02 (6.12m) (max) x 11'07 (3.53m) (max). Two secondary glazed windows to either side, two secondary glazed windows to front, two radiators. To the lounge area is carpet and a TV point and all furniture will be included in the sale. To the kitchen diner area is hardwood flooring and fitted with wall and base units with roll top work surfaces, sink drainer unit with mixer tap, electric hob, oven and hood, fridge, microwave and all other utensils will be included in the sale.

Bedroom one: Window to side, fitted wardrobes and drawers, carpet with bed and bedding included in the sale.

Bathroom/WC: Shower in cubicle, window to rear, low level WC, pedestal wash hand basin, tiled floor, all towels included in the sale.

Externally: To the front is a veranda, perfect for relaxing on a summer evening with a glass of wine or two! Also, with parking for two cars.
